Chapter 2 Writing Prompts – The Map Beneath the Blossom Tree

Here are some ideas to help you write the next part of your story!

You don't have to use them all — just choose the ones that fit what happens next or use your own idea!

Following the Map

Aisha has found a mysterious map with a golden X. Where does she go first?

Maybe she follows a winding path through the park, along the river, or under the blossom trees.

Try to include:

- What Aisha can see, hear, and feel (e.g., the soft petals falling, the rustling leaves).
- An expanded noun phrase (e.g., the long, winding path).
- A sentence starting with “Suddenly,” or “Then,”

What Does the Clue Mean?

The map has a riddle on the back. What do the words mean?

Does “find the light” lead to something glowing, sparkling, or hidden?

Try to include:

- A thought or question from Aisha (e.g., “What could this mean?”).
- A description of something unusual or magical.
- A sentence that explains her idea (using because or so).

Who Helps (or Stops) Aisha?

Aisha might not be alone on her adventure!

Maybe she meets a friendly character — or someone who wants the map too.

Try to include:

- Speech using inverted commas “ ”.
- What the character looks like or how they act.
- A reason why they help Aisha — or make things tricky!
